

Passover at Camp Ramah in California

A Passover for a Lifetime

Monday, March 29 – Wednesday, April 7, 2010

REGISTER EARLY & SAVE!***

Join us for our annual Passover Camp

This Passover, for 10 days and 9 nights, leave the holiday preparations to us while you relax in the green hills of the Ojai valley. Passover at Camp Ramah is an incredible experience conducive to friendship, spirituality, study, nature, recreation and serious relaxation. Your Passover experience will not only be leisurely and fun but educational as well! Learn with our distinguished Scholars-in-Residence, Rabbi Shawn Fields-Meyer and Professor Michael J. Hyde. The best part of Passover at Camp Ramah? You will not have to cook a single thing. You will enjoy three delicious gourmet meals a day and snacks galore!

- The option to participate in traditional, creative and/or semi-private sedarim.

How is Passover at Ramah Different from Other Passover Vacations?

Our private site in beautiful Ojai Valley encourages a relaxing experience apart from the hustle and bustle of other Pesach destinations. Passover Camp guests enjoy exclusive use of the entire camp property. Parents and children appreciate the freedom and flexibility of the enclosed and secure grounds. It is a great place for a family reunion!

Experience the many freedoms of Pesach at Camp Ramah in Ojai, California: freedom from cooking, from the city, from large crowds, and the distractions of everyday life. Join our intimate community for a Passover for a lifetime.

About Our Scholars-in-Residence

Professor Michael J. Hyde (Ph.D., Purdue University) is The University Distinguished Professor of Communication Ethics, Department of Communication, Wake Forest University and holds a joint appointment in the Program in Bioethics, Health, and Society, School of Medicine, Wake Forest University. Professor Hyde has written extensively about how the teachings of Issac Luria and Emmanuel Levinas instruct us about the ethical scope and function of the rhetorical use of language. Author of over 60 articles and six books including The Call of Conscience: Heidegger and Levinas, Hyde co-produced and co-wrote the documentary film: "Great Expectations: Life and Death in the World of High Tech Medicine."

Rabbi Shawn Fields-Meyer serves as school Rabbi at the Milken Community High School. She is also Instructor in Bible at the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies. She is co-author of the book, A Day Apart: Shabbat at Home, a practical and spiritual guide to the home rituals of Shabbat. Rabbi Fields-Meyer is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and received her rabbinic ordination from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. She and her husband, Tom, a writer, have three sons.
